PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

SHERIFF appointed for Northumberland, Sir John Midleton.

Vienna, February 12. N. S. Frequent Conferences are held at this Court upon the preſent ſituation of Affairs, particularly thoſe of Spain, and the Emperor ſeldom fails to be preſent at them himſelf. The Recruits deſign'd for the Imperial Forces ſerving in Spain, which amount to three thouſand Men, have been raiſed in Bohemia, and are marching towards Italy through the County of Tirol. Letters have been writ to the Republick of Venice, deſiring that thoſe Troops may have a free Paſſage through their Territories, which the Venetians have not ſeem'd inclin'd to grant, alledging by way of Excuſe, their Apprehenſions of the Plague. However, the Venetian Ambaſſador here has declar'd, that his Maſters will be contented with a Quarantain of no more than fourteen Days, which does not give entire Satisfaction to this Court, who think the Succours for Spain will be too much retarded by thoſe ſcrupulous Formalities. Mr. Palmes, the Queen of Great Britain's Envoy, has had an Audience of the Emperor, and deliver'd to his Imperial Majeſty a Letter from the Queen, preſſing earneſtly, that all poſſible Care may be taken to ſend timely Reinforcements to King Charles: and we hear that ſome Troops have been order'd from the Kingdom of Naples to Catalonia, beſides thoſe which are to be ſent from the State of Milan, ſo that there will be about eight thouſand Men drawn down towards the Coaſt of Genoa, to be in a readineſs to be tranſported to Spain, when Sir John Norris arrives with the Fleet. The Emperor has been pleas'd to write with his own Hand to Count Staremberg, to let him know how neceſſary he thought his Preſence wou'd be in Catalonia; and at the ſame time his Imperial Majeſty ſent that General his Picture ſet with Diamonds, and valu'd at between two and three thouſand Pounds Sterling, as a Mark of his Approbation of his many great and ſignal Services. The Conferences upon the Affairs of the Duke of Savoy began on Sunday laſt, being the 8th Inſtant, and are order'd to be continu'd four times a Week for the greater Diſpatch, in ſo eſſential a Point as the ſatisfying his Royal Highneſs. This Conference is compos'd of the Count de Windiſgratz, Count Schonborn Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, the Baron Zeilem Chancellor of the Court, and Lieutenant-General Count Konigſeck, who was appointed to be his Imperial Majeſty's Commiſſary and Plenipotentiary at Milan, in caſe the Conferences had been held there. Monſieur de Mellarede, the Duke of Savoy's Miniſter, applies himſelf with great Diligence to ſupport his Maſter's Pretenſions, and ſeems well ſatisfied with what has hitherto paſs'd upon that Subject. The Britiſh and Dutch Envoys uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to promote the happy Accompliſhment of this Negotiation; and the Earl of Peterborough is ſoon expected here to join his Inſtances in that Matter. The States-General have writ to the Emperor, to repreſent to him the Neceſſity of having the Prince of Savoy early in the Low-Countries, in order to begin the Operations of the next Campaign in thoſe Parts. They have likewiſe writ to the Prince himſelf, to haſten his coming, but we have not yet heard of any time fix'd for his Departure, his Highneſs being at preſent much employ'd in the important Affairs under Conſideration here.

Dreſden, February 17. N. S. The Cardinal of Sax-Zeits has been for ſome time at this Court, and tho' it has been reported that he was charg'd with a Commiſſion from his Imperial Majeſty to the King of Poland, it doth not yet appear, that he has taken upon him to Negotiate any Publick Affairs, but is only tranſacting ſome private Concerns relating to his Brother the Duke of Sax-Zeits, and ſome other Princes of the Houſe of Saxony. Count Wackerbaert, who was heretofore the King of Poland's Envoy-Extraordinary at Vienna, is ſpeedily to return thither in the ſame Character. Yeſterday this Court receiv'd Letters from Monſieur Fitzdome, his Poliſh Majeſty's Envoy to the Czar of Muſcovy, importing, that the Duke of Courland died in his way from Petersbourg to Riga; and that his Czariſh Majeſty was ſet out for Moſcow, where he propos'd to make but a ſhort ſtay, intending to proceed from thence to Aſoph, that he might be the better able by his Preſence to haſten the Naval Preparations in thoſe Parts. Theſe Letters add, that his Czariſh Majeſty had appointed General Czeremetoff to act on the Frontiers of Ukrania with a Body of ſeventy thouſand Muſcovites; and that all the Tartars, Calmuques and Coſſacks that are ſubject to the Czar, have receiv'd Orders to be in a readineſs to take the Field. Our Letters from Dantzick of the 4th Inſtant adviſe, that the Grand Treaſurer of the Crown had made a Demand of three hundred thouſand Rix-Dollars, to be rais'd on pain of Military Execution by the Dependencies of that City. The General Diet of this Electorate is aſſembled, and it is thought the Buſineſs that lies before them will be diſpatch'd in a Month's time; after which his Majeſty will return into Poland, where the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs has made his Preſence highly neceſſary. Baron Leeuwendaal is ſpeedily expected here from Copenhagen, for which Place Major-General Armefeldt, formerly the King of Poland's Miniſter to the Czar, ſet out yeſterday; but it is not yet known if he has any publick Character from his Majeſty.

Dublin,

on that Head, in case it appears that the Turks are in earnest. The King of Prussia having been inform'd of the Death of Baron Schmettau, his Envoy-Extraordinary to the States, his Majesty has given Orders to Monsieur Hymmen, Vice-Chancellor of the Dutchy of Cleves, to repair hither, and take upon him the Care of his Majesty's Affair for the pesent, in Conjunction with Monsieur Mindersnagen, Resident of Prussia.

Whitehall, February 17. Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint William Chetwind, Esq; her Majesty's Resident at Genoa, to be her Envoy-Extraordinary to that Republick.

Whereas Hugh Glenister, Journy-man Goldsmith, was, on or about the 4th Day of December last, Assaulted and Robbed by five or six Persons in the Habit of Soldiers and Seamen, in a Publick House, known by the Name of the Trooper and Trumpet, (alias the Soldier and Trumpet) in Church-lane, Middlesex; and whereas two of the Persons concerned in the said Robbery are taken up and sent to Newgate, but the rest abscond: To the intent that all the Parties concerned in the said Robbery may be brought to Justice, Her Majesty is pleased to grant Her gracious Pardon to any one of the Parties concerned in the said Robbery, who shall first discover his Accomplices, so that they be Apprehended and Convicted.

DARTMOUTH.

And for the farther Encouragement of the Person who shall make such Discovery, a Reward of 10 l. shall be paid by Mr. John Brassey, at the Acorn in Lumbard-street, the same Day any of those concerned in the said Robbery shall be Convicted, except the Parties already in Custody.

The Court of Assistants of the Corporation for making Hollow Sword Blades in England do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the Members of the said Corporation will be held at their House in Birchen-lane, London, on Thursday the 22d Instant, at 10 in the Forenoon, pursuant to the Adjournment of the General Court at their last Meeting.

☞ A Discourse concerning the Use of Incense in Divine Offices. Wherein it is proved, That that Practice, taken up in the Middle Ages, both by the Eastern and Western Churches, is, notwithstanding, an Innovation from the Doctrine of the first and purest Churches, and the Traditions deriv'd from the Apostles. Serving also to evince, That even the Consent of those Churches of the Middle Ages is no certain Argument, that even the Particulars, wherein they are supposed to Consent, were faithfully derived from the Apostles, against the Modern Assertors of the Infallibility of Oral Tradition. In a Letter to a Friend. By Henry Dodwell, M. A. Printed for James Holland at the Bible and Ball in St. Paul's Church-yard.
